Allegations

1. Ms. Camille Aarons (“Ms. Aarons”) was at the material times a duly registered dental hygienist in Ontario, holding a certificate of registration in the General class from the College of Dental Hygienists of Ontario (the “College”).

Failure to Comply with the Inquiries, Complaints and Reports Committee Decision

2. On February 24, 2016, Ms. Aarons was suspended for non-payment of registration fees. On October 11, 2016, the College received a report that Ms. Aarons may have practised dental hygiene when her certificate of registration was suspended, and the matter was subsequently referred to the College’s Inquiries, Complaints and Reports Committee (the “ICRC”) for an investigation.
3. On June 13, 2017, a panel of the ICRC directed Ms. Aarons to appear before a panel of the ICRC to be cautioned in person and to successfully complete a Specified Continuing Education or Remediation Program (“SCERP”) consisting of two courses, at her own expense. In particular, Ms. Aarons was required to complete the following courses:
 - a. the College’s online Jurisprudence Education Module (“JEM”); and
 - b. an approved ethics course.
4. The panel of the ICRC specified that Ms. Aarons was required to provide proof to the Registrar that she had commenced the above courses within three months of the date of its decision (i.e., by September 15, 2017) and to provide proof to the Registrar that she had successfully completed the courses within six months of the date of its decision (i.e., by December 15, 2017).
5. On or about June 15, 2017, the College sent Ms. Aarons a copy of the ICRC’s decision, as well as information on how to complete the courses. On or about August 22, 2017, the College advised Ms. Aarons of the scheduled date (October 27, 2017) for her caution-in-person.
6. On or about October 23, 2017, Ms. Aarons advised the College that she had not commenced either the JEM course or the ethics course. This was over one month after Ms. Aarons was required by the ICRC to commence the courses.
7. On or about October 26, 2017, Ms. Aarons sent an email to the College requesting an extension for the completion of the SCERP courses; the request was denied.

8. On or about October 27, 2017, the scheduled date of the caution-in-person, Ms. Aarons advised College staff by voicemail that she was ill and unable to attend her caution.
9. As of May 2018, Ms. Aarons has not attended to receive her caution-in-person and has failed to provide proof to the College that she commenced or successfully completed the SCERP courses, as directed by the ICRC in its decision dated June 13, 2017.

Professional Misconduct Alleged

10. It is alleged that the above conduct constitutes professional misconduct pursuant to the following paragraphs of section 15 of Ontario Regulation 218/94 under the Dental Hygiene Act, 1991: paragraph 44 (failing to attend an oral caution of the Complaints [ICRC] Committee); and/or paragraph 45 (failing to comply with an order or direction of a Committee or a panel of a Committee of the College); and/or paragraph 52 (disgraceful, dishonourable or unprofessional conduct); and/or paragraph 53 (conduct unbecoming a dental hygienist).
